

HOW LUCKY WE ARE

© Belinda McArdle 2016

“Come sit by my side” she said, “I have stories to share”
And we looked through the newspaper. She agreed “life just isn't fair.”
“If I could shield you from rain, I would not, nor would I hide you from pain
But I'll teach you to keep in your soul, a pure and simple refrain ~

How lucky we are, Oh how lucky we are How lucky we are, Oh how lucky we are.”

“Go run it all out” she said, “when your heart feels too sore
You might need to cry out or shout, you might hide behind doors
Why words can be cruel my love, I can't honestly say
But reach for the refrain, if you can find a way

How lucky we are, Oh how lucky we are How lucky we are, Oh how lucky we are.”

*“Despair if you need, but don't stay too long,
if you can stand back up, if you can – you be strong
We need lovers in this life against every plight
if you have love we need you right at the front of the line”*

How lucky we are, Oh how lucky we are How lucky we are, Oh how lucky we are.”