

LETTING THESE VOICES OUT

© Belinda McArdle 2009

Money goes round
Figureheads change
People feel hope
Some feel rage
Some need to speak out
Others closely watch
No wrong - No right
But there is such

Power in singing in letting these voices out
Power in singing in letting these voices out
Power in singing in letting these voices out
And across the circle
Someone's with you

Will the lamb and lion
lie together
Carefully they test
the change of weather
Will there be an equal
music in the den?
They prowl but will they wail? We know then, there's

CHORUS

It's more than words
It's doing
Voicing and improving
